CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 2, 2026-- Xeris Biopharma Holdings, Inc. (Nasdaq: XERS), a fast-growing biopharmaceutical company committed to improving patient lives by developing and commercializing innovative products across a range of therapies, today announced financial results for the fourth quarter and full year ended December 31, 2025, and provides financial guidance for full year 2026.

"Thanks to the entire Xeris organization, 2025 was a transformational year, marked by focused execution, record revenue growth, and our emergence as a self-funding, sustainable biopharmaceutical company," said John Shannon, CEO. "As we enter 2026 from this position of strength, we remain focused on driving continued rapid revenue growth, the timely execution of XP-8121's ongoing development leading into the start of its Phase 3 clinical trial, and the judicious deployment of capital to further strengthen our business outlook in order to maximize long-term value for shareholders."

"Our exceptional results in 2025 reflect the strength of our business and set the stage for our future," said Steve Pieper, CFO. "As we look ahead to 2026, we will build on the strong momentum across our enterprise and expect total revenue to range from approximately $375 million to $390 million, representing more than 30% growth at the midpoint. This outlook will further strengthen our balance sheet, which will create even more financial flexibility to drive value in both the near and long term."

Fourth Quarter 2025 Highlights

	Three months ended December 31,		Change
	2025	2024	$	%
Product revenue (in thousands):
Recorlev	$ 45,334	$ 22,614	$ 22,720	100.5
Gvoke	24,645	23,262	1,383	5.9
Keveyis	12,799	11,124	1,675	15.1
Other product revenue	652	—	652	—
Product revenue, net	83,430	57,000	26,430	46.4
Royalty, contract and other revenue	2,377	3,099	(722)	(23.3)
Total revenue	$ 85,807	$ 60,099	$ 25,708	42.8

- Recorlev® net revenue was $45.3 million – an increase of approximately 100% compared to the fourth quarter of 2024. This growth was due to increased patient demand.
- Gvoke® net revenue was $24.6 million – an increase of approximately 6% compared to the fourth quarter of 2024. The increase was due to favorable net pricing.
- Keveyis® net revenue was $12.8 million – an increase of approximately 15% compared to the fourth quarter of 2024. This growth was due to increased patient demand.

Cost of goods sold (COGS) increased $1.5 million or 16% in the fourth quarter of 2025 compared to the same period last year. This increase was primarily due to an increase in product revenue.

Research and development (R&D) expenses increased $1.8 million or 29% in the fourth quarter of 2025 compared to the same period last year. The increase in R&D expenses primarily reflect higher expenses to support XP-8121.

Selling, general and administrative (SG&A) expenses increased $7.4 million or 18% in the fourth quarter of 2025 compared to the same period last year. This increase mainly reflects incremental personnel-related expenses.

Net income for the fourth quarter was $11.1 million, compared to a net loss of $5.1 million in the same period last year.

Adjusted EBITDA¹ for the fourth quarter was $25.1 million, an improvement of $16.8 million compared to the fourth quarter of 2024.

Full Year 2025 Highlights

Total revenue	$	291,845	$	203,070	$	88,775	43.7

- Recorlev® net revenue was $139.3 million - an increase of approximately 117% compared to the year ended December 31, 2024. This growth was due to increased patient demand.
- Gvoke® net revenue was $94.1 million - an increase of approximately 14% compared to the year ended December 31, 2024. The increase was due to higher patient demand and favorable net pricing.
- Keveyis® net revenue was $47.6 million - a decrease of approximately 4% compared to the year ended December 31, 2024. The decrease was due to unfavorable net pricing, partially offset by higher patient demand.
- Other product revenue increased by $2.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2025. This includes sales of our products to commercialization partners.
- Royalty, contract and other revenue was $8.8 million and primarily reflects the recognition of milestones from partnership agreements.

¹ Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure. See "Note Regarding Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures" and the corresponding financial tables at the end of this press release for definitions and reconciliations of non-GAAP measures.

Cost of goods sold (COGS) increased $5.7 million or 16% for the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to the same period in 2024. This increase was primarily due to an increase in product revenue.

Research and development (R&D) expenses increased $5.6 million or 22% for the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to the same period last year. The increase in R&D expenses primarily reflects personnel-related expenses to support our pipeline, primarily XP-8121.

Selling, general and administrative (SG&A) expenses increased $18.9 million or 12% for the year ended December 31, 2025 compared to the same period last year. The increase mainly reflects higher personnel-related expense ($13.5 million), largely due to personnel-related expenses to support the commercial enterprise, including the Recorlev expansion.

Net income for the year ended December 31, 2025, was $0.6 million, compared to a net loss of $54.8 million in the prior year.

Adjusted EBITDA¹ for the year ended December 31, 2025 was $59.4 million, an improvement of $58.2 million compared to the year ended December 31, 2024.

Total Shares Outstanding were 172,431,290 at February 27, 2026.

2026 Outlook

Xeris provides 2026 full year financial guidance and expects:

- Total revenue between $375 million to $390 million.
- Gross margin to improve modestly compared to 2025 reflecting favorable product mix.
- R&D expense to increase by approximately $25 million compared to 2025 as the Company initiates its Phase 3 study for XP-8121.
- SG&A expense to increase by approximately $45 million compared to 2025, driven primarily by investments in Recorlev.
- Adjusted EBITDA¹ to increase in total dollars compared to 2025.

Note Regarding Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This press release includes financial results prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (GAAP) and also certain historical and forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures, namely Adjusted EBITDA. This non-GAAP financial measure is not meant to be considered in isolation and should be read in conjunction with the Company's consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP, and was not prepared under any comprehensive set of accounting rules or principles. Non-GAAP financial measures are not an alternative for financial measures prepared in accordance with GAAP, and the calculation of the non-GAAP financial measure included herein may differ from similarly titled measures used by other companies. The Company believes that the presentation of Adjusted EBITDA, when viewed in conjunction with actual GAAP results, provides investors with a more meaningful understanding of the Company's ongoing and projected operating performance, exclusive of factors that do not directly affect what the Company considers to be its core operating performance, as well as unusual events. The Company believes this non-GAAP financial measure helps indicate underlying trends in the Company's business and is important in comparing current results with prior period results and understanding expected operating performance. Also, management uses this non-GAAP financial measure to establish budgets and operational goals, and to manage the Company's business and evaluate its performance. In addition, management believes that Adjusted EBITDA is important in evaluating the administrative costs of operating the Company's business.

Adjusted EBITDA is GAAP net income (loss) before income tax (benefit) expense, plus interest and other income, less depreciation and amortization, interest expenses, share based compensation and debt refinancing fees.
